Legend of the Five Rings: The Card Game is a collectible card game based on the Legend of the Five Rings series of wuxia novels, which was originally designed by Kazuo Ishii. The Legend of the Five Rings III. The Legend of the Five Rings: The Keeper of the Hourglass, the third and final novel in the Legend of the Five Rings: The Roleplaying Game series, was published in June 2004. The publisher was Twilight Publishing. The series is set in the same fictional world as the second book, The Legend of the Five Rings, in the now-defunct chronicle of the Torishima Empire and the Wulin (“Dragon Guard”). It contains new character options and additional rules for the game.

The game takes place approximately 500 years after the setting of the second book. A new threat has arisen in the form of a deadly magic known as Shinning Tears, which can dissolve the body of its prey as easily as it can remove a limb. A small contingent of Shinning Tears is currently operating in the Four Countries. A thousand leagues north of their current base, the Shinning Tears are preparing their forces to take what they intend to be the last stronghold of the Five Great Clans of Taira. By seizing this stronghold, the Shinning Tears can extend their influence over the entire northern side of the continent. You are a follower of the Way of the Phoenix. However, this doesn't mean you worship the phoenix. The phoenix is a spiritual power, and the Way of the Phoenix is its interpretation. You follow the Way of the Phoenix because you've lost faith in the gods. Or maybe you lost faith in humans to begin with. Or maybe you just don't like gods and magic. Or maybe you think people are better at doing the right thing, and you want to train to be one of them. Whatever you are, the Way of the Phoenix offers you a new way to live. However, the
