How to add a scammer to whitelist when he/she has been banned by a credit card company? MrFrog: Please help my daughter is experiencing problems with her account: She can only use her own password to log in on facebook, when she wants to use her credit card on fb to do her transacion she got an error message that said something like “Order for the credit card was cancelled. So I have tried this and other internet ways to help her out but in vain. Any suggestions will be highly appreciated. Thanks! Even if the transaction went through, I don’t see how the credit card companies would be able to match up the credit card with the transaction when the credit card was not used. 27.09.2010 20:07 hawaiian_rocket @MrFrog, it’s not the credit card thing. it’s the whole thing. let’s see what happens. Best regards! hawaiian_rocket 27.09.2010 20:13 MrFrog I’m not sure I’ 3e33713323
