I have a cell named "Text1" where it says "Text ABC, Text XYZ, Text ABC" and I have another cell named "Text2" where it says "Text A, Text B". The range would be something like Cell Text1: Text2. What I'm trying to achieve is that if Text1.Text = "Text ABC" then Text2.Text = "Text A, Text B". Is there a way to do that? A: The following will remove "Text ABC" from the range and retain "Text A, Text B" in Text2 Private Sub CommandButton1_Click() Dim Text1 As String Dim Text2 As String Text1 = "Text ABC, Text XYZ, Text ABC" Text2 = "Text A, Text B" If InStr(Text1, "Text ABC") > 0 Then Text2 = Replace(Text1, "Text ABC", "") End Sub An efficient paradigm for the genome-

PPTX to Screensaver Converter is a software application which helps individuals create screensavers in the SCR format, from PowerPoint presentations. Upon a typical and uneventful installation process, you are met with a simple-to-use interface, even for people with little to no experience with computers. In addition to that, it is built on several tabs, which enable you quick access to all the options available. The utility supports single file conversion, as well as batch processing, a feature which is going to help individuals manage multiple files faster. The simple transformation enables you to append other files to your screensaver-to-be, such as music and videos, in MP3, AVI, MOV, WMA, WMV, MPG2 formats. Uploaded items are going to be displayed along with their name, path and size (expressed in KB). From the general settings tab, the software tool helps you assign a custom icon, by uploading an ICO file from your hard drive. It is also possible to display thumbnail of the first slide in the screensaver preview box. The conversion process might take anything from a few seconds to minutes, depending on the number of files you have uploaded and your computer's performance. During our tests, CPU and memory usage was moderate to low. The Help contents provided are not quite extensive, yet seeing how easy it is to use the app, it becomes apparent that they are not actually needed. The transformation is in effect as soon as you upload one or more PowerPoint files. After that, it is possible to select the target folder in which you are going to save your newly created screensaver. The process can be stopped and started as many times as needed. The next step is setting the pictures and audio files, and ticking the containers box, where you can decide what you want to add to your screensaver. However, if you choose the "slide thumbnail" option, the first slide of your PowerPoint presentation is going to be added to the preview window. The ultimate step is to adjust several advanced settings, such as preview settings, orientation, starting slide, transition effect, and so on. The last step is allowing the creation of new screensavers in your chosen folder. A basic preview of the converted screensaver can be seen in the preview box, and clicking on the "Preview" button initiates the transformation. The result is a PPTX screensaver, either in a.scr file, or a.scr file and multiple pictures.Q 09e8f5149f
